

The Global Priorities Committee (GPC) is an advisory body to the Vice President and Vice Provost for Global Strategy and Programs and the Provost. It meets monthly, for a total of approximately nine meetings per academic year. The membership of the GPC comprises senior faculty members, six from schools with undergraduate bodies and six from the professional schools. The total membership shall include one member from the Executive Committee of the Academic Council and one or two from the broader membership of the Academic Council. The chair shall be a member of the faculty. The GPC is charged with developing and refining Duke's global strategy and assessing university and academic programs and activities operating globally, both when they are being created and in monitoring ongoing performance. Term: Three years with possibility of reappointment.
